Muhammad Ali is believed to be one of the most photographed individuals in the world.

Beginning on Wednesday, visitors to the Muhammad Ali Center will have the opportunity to view select photos of Ali taken with other celebrities in a new exhibit called "Aliwood."

The exhibit includes signed photos donated by Park West Gallery as well as multimedia and quotes by the celebrities about Ali.

The large-scale photographs were taken between 1963 and 1999 and include the Beatles, Hank Aaron, Sammy Davis Jr., President Gerald Ford, Jackie Onassis, Bill and Hillary Clinton, and numerous others.

The exhibit is scheduled through Sept. 5. It is included in the price of regular center admission.
